

Weleetka First
Baptist Church

Biblical Stewardship

March 19, 2017

As believers, we have been entrusted with the gospel and being a good steward requires us to have the proper attitude of stewardship which is "what's mine is His, and I'll share it with you." This morning we are going to look at some Biblical principles of stewardship that will help us gain this proper attitude.

Principles of Biblical Stewardship

① Principle of _____

↳ Deut. 8:7-18

↳ Ps. 89:1

↳ Ps. 24:1

↳ 1 Chron. 29:10

② Principle of _____

↳ Luke 19:12-27

↳ Romans 14:10-12

③ Principle of _____

↳ Matthew 6:19,20

Home Group Discussion Questions:

1. Why do we need to understand the principle of ownership?
2. What is the biggest hindrance to the principle of ownership?
3. How does understanding the principle of ownership free us to give liberally of our time, talent, & treasure to the advancement of the gospel?
4. Do you think that Christians sometimes forget that we will be held accountable for how we handle the gospel?
5. What results from not understanding the principle of accountability?
6. Do we need to be careful to not take the principle of accountability so far that it leads us to legalism?
7. Why do we sometimes feel like what we are doing to serve the Lord goes unnoticed or unappreciated?
8. Can we do some things for the Lord where our only reward is what we do receive from others?
9. How does a proper understanding of the principle of reward help us develop the proper attitude of stewardship?
10. What are some ways we can help each other understand & practice the Biblical principles of ownership, accountability, & reward?

Every faculty you have, your power of thinking or of moving your limbs from moment to moment, is given you by God. If you devoted every moment of your whole life exclusively to His service, you could not give Him anything that was not in a sense His own already.

– C. S. Lewis, Mere Christianity